Oriental Hold Mass Meetings to Agitate Against the United States.

Washington, Jan. 1.—Dispatches from Canton tell of a mass meeting called to discuss the American act for the exclusion of Chinese, at which more than 1,000 persons were present. Resolutions adopted at the meeting provide that the boycott against American goods be revived; that newspapers shall not advertise American manufactures; that laborers be dissuaded from going to Panama; that the imperial government be petitioned to negotiate with America for a modification of the exclusion act; and that these resolutions be placarded throughout the country.

FIGHT

Princeton Will Drop Money—Advance Sale of Seats for Gans-Herman Fight Today Falls Away Below Columbus—Heavy Snow Storm.

Tonawanda, N. Y., Jan. 1.—Joe Gans, of Baltimore, lightweight champion of the world, and Herman Langford, better known in the ring as "Kid" Herman, of Chicago, will meet today before the Casino Athletic Club for the championship title.

The contest began at 3 o'clock Pacific time. Both fighters were weighed in at 135 pounds each at 10 o'clock this morning.

That the promoters of the fight will leave a financial loss seems certain as the ticket sales have fallen below all expectations.

But few sporting men of national reputation are here and betting has been almost stagnant.

Gans is favorite. The ruling odds tonight are 10 to 4, with little Herman money in sight.

Straight Marquis or Queensberry rules will govern the contest. This will permit fighting in the clinches as long as one of the other has one arm free.

Jack Walsh of San Francisco will be the referee.

The fight will be for a 135-pound limit and will be the winner and loser to be decided.

Even with Joe's 15-round record, the heavy money bet on Gans and the odds of 10 to 4.

A heavy snow storm raged all day Monday and indications point to even greater conditions for the fight.

The real struggle was on the trade early yesterday, while Herman, cornered along the frozen ground for four miles.

So far as known there will be no special trains running into Tonawanda for the fight, although extra trains will be dispatched from Goldfield to handle the great number of visitors expected from that place.

Outside of a hundred persons from San Francisco and vicinity, the attendance will be made up of miners from adjacent camps and residents of southern Nevada towns.

As was the case in the Goldfield fight last September, there will be many women among the spectators.

WIFE SLAIN WITH BABE IN HER ARMS

Mysterious Murder Recalls Curse Put on Whole Community.

Husband Raven in Maniac Rage—
Woman Shot Dead As She Sits in Bed—Assassin Makes Escape.

Cambridge, Ill., Jan. 1.—The mystery surrounding the murder of Mrs. Mary Anderson, the young wife of Henry Anderson, a rich retired farmer, deepens every hour.

Residents of Cambridge and vicinity are appalled at this latest horror, and the superstitious are citing the alleged curse put upon the community when a young Swede domestic was cruelly done to death a few years ago. Within the year there have been eight murders and six suicides here.

Henry Anderson, husband of the woman, is a raving maniac. He is closely guarded to prevent his destroying himself or others.

Slain With Babe In Arms.

The facts briefly are these: Mrs. Anderson was found sitting in bed, alone dead, with a bullet hole thro her temple. Clinging to her cold hands was her nine-months-old baby. Nothing in the room had been disturbed. On the dresser, in plain sight, was a jewel case containing many valuable articles, including diamonds. There are no lines of fear on the woman's face and she must have died instantly without feeling her way.

Her husband, in rational moments, declares he was awakened at 2 o'clock in the morning by the report of a revolver. His wife was sleeping on the second floor. Rattling down the hall, through the kitchen and out across the lawn, finally appearing over the hedge which surrounds the grounds.

Assassin Leaves
No Trace.

Marks of a jimmy were found on a kitchen window and the lock had been broken. Neighbors say this lock had been broken for several days and that when they arrived they found the kitchen door open. Anderson claims that a wallet containing $105 and some small change, which had been kept between the mattress and his wife's bed, is missing. Careful search fails to reveal any footprints in the rear of the house, such as would be made by a man in flight.

The married life of the Andersons has always been happy. No one recalls that they ever quarreled or had any differences. They were wealthy, as wealth is counted in a country town, and counted as friends of the entire population.

SYRIAN BRIDE
Was Sold To Her Spouse By Her
Brother—Now the Latter Is Sorry
He Let Her Go.

Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 1.—According to her own testimony submitted to Judge Loft in the City Court today, Mrs. Emily Haddad, aged 16, was sold to her husband, George Haddad, a Toledo fruit merchant, for $150 by Michael Lada, her brother-in-law. This took place last May, and was the result of a three-hour courtship. Now the bride's brother has caused the arrest of Haddad for perjury and the husband was tried before City Court Judge Loft. It is claimed he made oath to the effect that his intended was 18 years of age when she was only 16. Judge Loft this afternoon referred the case to the grand jury.

Mrs. Haddad is the daughter of a wealthy Syrian, was educated in Paris, speaks six languages, and is an accomplished musician.

MORE TRUCKS ARE NEEDED

State Railroad Commission Finds That While Equipment of Lines Has Increased Mileage Gained But Little.

Columbus, Jan. 1.—The state railroad commission in its first report filed with the governor today says: "Too much time is wasted by trains lying on sidetracks and there is much waste in the use of fuel and water."

The report shows that of the equipment on Ohio railroads there is a shortage of 10,000 tons of freight cars, 10,000 tons of passenger cars, and 10,000 tons of locomotives.

The report also shows that the amount of freight mileage gained by the railroads in 1906 was 1,122,000,000 miles, or an increase of 1.2 per cent. This includes switching and sidings.

JOHN D. GIVES $3,000,000 MORE

New Year's Gift to the University of Chi- cago Brings Donation to $21,416,921.

Chicago, Jan. 1.—As a token of his esteem and with a hope for many happy returns of the day John D. Rockefeller today presented the University of Chicago $3,000,000 as a New Year's gift. This brings the total donations by Mr. Rockefeller to the big school he founded to $21,416,921.

The gifts today were in gilt-edged securities. Of this sum $2,700,000 goes to the permanent endowment fund. The remainder of that gift, $300,000, is to make up this year's deficit, provide for an increase in the salaries of instructors and permit the payment of various minor expenses, including improvements of the drinking water system, beautifying the campus, installing a set of chains and building greenhouses.

Only Anxiety Is How to Care for

Washington, D. C., Jan. 1.—"There is no occasion for alarm. Our only anxiety need be lest we fall of facilities to properly garner, store, transport and market our multiplied blessings. Let every man be of good cheer and try to be conservative in everything except thankfulness."

Secretary Shaw thus concludes a resume of the year's financial record which he says has been prepared in response to multiplied requests.

In round numbers he places the receipts for the calendar year 1906 at $255,000,000 and the expenditures at $256,000,000; or an excess of receipts over expenditures of $1,000,000.

The total expenditure, however, for 1906, as compared with 1905, shows a decrease of but $5,000,000.

Enumerating the various items of expenditure for the year, the secretary says that the total of the treasury show surplus receipts over expenditures of $1,000,000, or an excess of $1,000,000 over the corresponding months of the year.

The cash in the treasury for 1906, as compared with 1905, shows an increase of $1,000,000, or an excess of $1,000,000 over the corresponding months of the year.

BIGGEST YET

In the Exhibition Now Being Given Under the Management of the Lima Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock Association.

Nearly Five Hundred Entries, including some of the finest Poultry in America—began their work at noon today.

The Poultry Show is now fairly on. The Roberts block on east Market street, where the exhibit is being given, was a busy place this morning.

The number of entries, nearly five hundred, is a record breaker in the history of local poultry shows. And some of the finest fowls in America are on exhibition.

By the time this is in type, the last exhibit will be in place. The room, which is a commodious one will be filled to its capacity.

In every way the present show gives promise of being exceedingly successful. It is under the management of the following officers and committees:

President, Wm. East; vice president, C. H. Morguet; secretary, Edward Heiser; treasurer, L. C. Blair; superintendent, James East; assistant superintendents, H. C. Jenkins and G. A. Mattemson.

The following gentlemen comprise the Executive Committee: Wm. East, James East, L. C. Blair, H. W. Loesch, J. C. Spahr, Edward Heiser and C. H. Morguet.

The Show Committee consists of Wm. East, F. F. Plager, J. C. Snider, H. C. Jenkins, J. D. East and Edward Heiser.

Members: J. E. Gault, Charles E. Crum and Frank L. Platt are officiating as judges.

The rules governing the exhibit were published in the NEWS a week ago.

F. F. Aschbacher, of St. Mary's, has a fine exhibit of pigeons of the following varieties: Turbitt Jacobins, Dragons, English Carriers, Trumpeters, Magpies, Muffet Tumblers, Archangels, and White Doves.

BURNED

REMARKS: FIRE, BUILDING, WAS TOO FAR FROM THE CITY WATER MAINS—DEPARTMENT REMOVED TO PREVENT ALARM OF FIRE.

At 3:15 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire from box sixty-seven called the department to O'Brien's, where the home of "Doc" Hobson, a well-known horse trainer, was found to be on fire.

The building was so far from the water plug that the fire department was unable to render any assistance and it was burned to the ground, with most of its contents.

While the department was on the way to this fire an alarm came in from box twenty-one. It proved to be a false alarm, supposed to have been caused by the crossing of wires.

DIED AT TOLEDO

And Remains of Lewis Lichty Will Be Brought to Lima for Burial.

Lewis Lichty, whose home was at 1621 St. John's avenue, died at 2 o'clock this morning at the State Hospital for the insane at Toledo.

Mr. Floyd C. Whitely, of Day's undertaking establishment, left today noon today to take charge of the remains, which will be brought back to this city for burial. The funeral will be held on Thursday, the exact hour not yet having been decided upon.

GRAND ARMY MATTERS.
The commander of Post 201 will assemble at their hall at 9 a. m. January 2, for the purpose of attending the funeral of Conrad Thos. St. Shave, of south Central avenue.

WE CAN FURNISH YOUR HOME COMPLETE

The Leading House Furnishers.

One month ago we received a tip that owing to the big advance in raw materials the stove manufacturers had decided at their convention, which was held at Indianapolis, Ind., to advance the price on all stoves. Again HOOVER & CO. made good and bought all their stoves for the coming year <sup>AT THE OLD</sup> prices. We have found in our 20 years experience that it pays to save your customers all you can. A call at our store will convince you that our prices have not changed and that we can save you from $3.00 to $5.00 on every Stove while others will be compelled to pay the advanced prices.

TWO WORLD BEATERS.

When you see these two marks you can say to yourself just what we would tell you. That we have sold these two stoves for several years, that we full guarantee them, that we have sold hundreds of both, that we have never had one to go wrong or take back by reason of the stove not working.

loving her, had encouraged him to go on, and led him to believe that his love was returned. And in his simple ignorance of the world he did not see why these matters should be looked up in his own breast from a mistaken sense of duty to be accepted where no duty was due.

"No," he answered. "There is nothing more to be said."

Without looking toward her, Jack Meredith made a few steps toward the door—quietly, self composedly, with that perfect savoir faire of the social expert that made him different from other men. Meredith's eyes felt a sudden plebeian desire to scream. It was all so heartlessly well bred. He turned on his heel with a little half cynical bow.

"I leave my name with you," he said. "It is probable that you will be put to some inconvenience. I can only regret that this disengagement did not come earlier."

He stood looking blankly at the door which had closed behind three men, one old and two young, and perhaps she realized the fact that such creatures may be but thin, helpless, with a single hair but that that hair may snap at any moment.

She was not thinking of Guy Oswald. She had never loved him. He had only been one of her experiments, and by his very simplicity, above all, by his uncompromising honesty, he had outwitted her.

It was characteristic of her that at that moment she scarcely knew the weight of her own remorse. It sat lightly on her shoulders then, and it was only later on, when her beauty began to fade, when years came and brought no joy for the middle-aged unmarried woman, that she began to realize what it was that she had to carry through life with her. At that moment a thousand other thoughts filled her mind; such thoughts as one would expect to find there. How was the world to be decided? The guests would have to be put off the wedding commiseration, the presents returned. And the world—her world—would laugh in its sleeve. There lay the sting.

"Where are you going?" asked Meredith when they were in the street.

"Home."

They walked on a few paces together.

"May I come with you?" asked Meredith again.

"Certainly, I have a good deal to tell you."

They called a cab, and, singularly enough, they drove all the way to Russell square without speaking. These two men, who worked together for many months, and men who have a daily task in common usually learn to perform it without much interchange of conversation. When one man gets to know the mind of another, conversation assumes a place of secondary importance. These two had been through more incidents together than usually fall to the lot of men; each knew how the other would act and think under given circumstances; each knew what the other was thinking now.

The house in Russell square, the quiet home in the corner where the

LANDMADE WITH A CAR.

Wagon Pile of North Ohio Down on Track Just as Trolley is Passing. Newark, O., Jan. 1.—A landslide along the Indiana Mass near Black Hand Sunday night nearly caused the death of motorman M. A. Ryan, who was in charge of the last car from Newark to Zanesville. As the car passed one of the high cliffs near Black Hand a large section of earth and stone became loosened and slid to the track, crashing through the vestibule of the car Ryan's arm was fractured.

CARTER & CARROLL

Our Semi-Annual Stock Reducing Sale.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING THIS GREAT SALE.

Telephone orders will not be accepted for merchandise offered in this sale at reduced prices. Merchandise offered at reduced prices will not be sent on approval. A cash deposit of 25 per cent of the amount of the purchase will be accepted and the goods held until full payment is made. All alterations on garments will be charged extra for at the exact cost of the work.

We intend that this shall be the greatest Money-Saving Sale ever held in Lima. To this end and for the further purpose of reducing the stocks to a satisfactory point for inventory, we have made the greatest price reductions in the history of our business.

These heavy reductions on desirable merchandise are in accordance with the fixed policy of this store to dispose of all goods within their season. Those who received money for gifts will especially profit through purchases in this sale—in many instances the purchasing power can be doubled.
